Help your customer understand:

- * Credit score ranges, scoring models & how they are calculated
- * What is the best mix of credit to obtain the highest score, which will maximize your customer's buying potential
- * What to Do's & not to Do with their credit when considering a new purchase or refinance
- * How derogatory information (including Divorce settlements, No credit situations, etc.) may effect their credit & buying potential
- * How to increase their potential buying power with better scores

Add to your existing knowledge and experience!

Advantage Credit understands that one of the first places the loan process starts is with the credit score. Therefore, we developed a seminar tailored specifically on the subject of "credit".
