

Occupancy Site Report

Our nationwide network of professional field service representatives provides a full range of regulatory-compliant residential inspection services tailored to each client's operating needs and business goals.

Whether it is to satisfy occupancy investigation for forward or reverse mortgages our team of professionals can evaluate the situation and collect borrower and neighbor information as required under your borrower occupancy policies and investor guidelines such as the Fannie Mae Loan Quality Initiative.

We work with the client to tailor the goals and reporting for the unscheduled or scheduled visits to the property and the collection of information, photographs and signatures you require.

Our professional field service representatives have the experience needed to meet guidelines in a timely and cost-effective manner.

Features:

- Nationwide service
- Tailored reporting and data collection
- Photographs
- Collection of borrower signature on Occupancy Attestation Statements
- Experienced team
